

Week Report 8

What is VIM?

VIM is an advanced text editor which allows users to perform different tasks efficiently without needing to move their hands from the keyboard to a mouse.

What is Nano?

Nano is another text editor in the Unix/Linux world, known for its simplicity and ease of use, especially for beginners.

Describe in your own words how to:

Start and quit vim

Start VIM : Type VIM on your terminal and press enter Quit VIM: Press esc, Type :q and press enter

What are the different vim modes:

Insert mode: write text Normal mode: to navigate command mode: to perform commands Visual mode: to navigate and manipulate text selections

Insert text in vim

Start VIM and press 'i' thats going to change to insert mode

Save a file in vim

in nomrmal mode press 'Esc' and type :w

Search for a word inside vim in normal mode type '/' then type the word that you are looking for

Delete text in vim

in normal mode, move the cursor to the text that you want to delete, press 'x' to delete a single character press 'dw' to delete a word or press 'dd' to delete a line